

Extended Project

at Conyers Sixth Form

This is your chance to complete an independent project on a subject of your choice. It's worth half an A level and you gain some amazing skills in the process. Here are some topics that previous students have researched:

- Should we bring back the death penalty?
- Should we stop funding cancer research?
- Will we be able to sustain a life on Mars?
- Are serial killers born or made?
- Did the Nuremburg trials provide justice?

Assessments

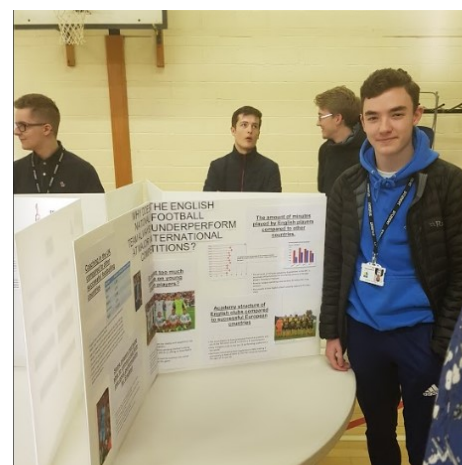

You will write a 5000 word report answering your question

OR

You will create an artefact along with an essay that is 2000 words long

Opportunities and experiences

- You'll learn how to fully reference resources
- You'll learn how to gather reliable research
- You'll learn how to write a report
- You'll present your findings to others
