

BTEC L3 Extended Diploma Health and Social Care

at Conyers Sixth Form

What effect does the environment have on the emotional and intellectual development of children? How does the female reproductive system work? What is the best way to treat and care for adults with dementia? Get hands on, real life experience in health and social care within this level 3 BTEC, preparing you in the best way possible for a career within this sector.

Course content

1. Human Lifespan Development
 2. Working in H&SC
 3. Anatomy and Physiology
 4. Work Experience in H&SC
 5. Promoting Public Health
 6. Caring for individuals with Dementia
- Plus 7 other units

Assessments

You will sit 4 external exam in Yr12 and complete another 9 coursework assessments over the two years.

Opportunities and experiences in H&SC

- Visits and talks from health and care from professionals and universities.
- Links within the community to help you gain work experience in this field— 100Hrs of work experience is a compulsory part of the course.
- Charity work and supporting the local community

What can you do with BTEC Health?

Careers include:

- Health and social care professions (Physiotherapy, Radiography, Nursing, Nutrition, Midwifery, medical research)
- Social Care professions- (Social work, Youth work, career, mental health support worker)
- Teaching
- Criminologist, Sociologist, Psychologist.

Early Childhood Studies

What you need: BTEC Health and Social Care L3 Extended Diploma DDM

“Studying BTEC H&SC has allowed me to develop my confidence particularly whilst on placement. I have explored so many topics from anatomy to human development. This course has given me the platform to go onto university equipped with the research skills I will need for the future.” - Georgia

Criminology and Sociology

What you need: BTEC Health and Social Care L3 Extended Diploma DDM

“Conyers Sixth Form has given me the support needed to get me confidently through my BTEC L3 course and given me opportunities to find and carry out work experience. My favourite aspects of H&SC is the class discussions and variety of topics covered as it opens your mind to lots of different career paths.” - Kalic

Health Exam Board: BTEC

Contact: Miss Sheran Bray

sbray@conyers.org.uk

Conyers Sixth Form

sixthform@conyers.org.uk

01642 783253