Teacher abroad

What you need: A-Level in a foreign language and two other A-Levels of your choice.

“I knew I wanted to study a language from a young age as I've always been fascinated by language and its use. What I enjoyed the most is learning in depth about the culture, politics and history of a foreign country which has furthered my understanding of the language and inspired me to learn more”
– Kate

Business with a year abroad

What you need: A language, History or English Literature: AAB

“I love studying French A-Level as it not only gives me a wider understanding of another culture but opens up many more opportunities in the future. In my year abroad in Paris, I will be able to further my speaking abilities and experience French culture first hand. ” - Robyn
